

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.

THURSDAY EVENING, OCT. 20, 1892.

A SLICK KNAVE.—"The slickest piece of knavery ever perpetrated in the world was the work of a Frenchman," said Louis Lartre, joining in the discussion of coinage in progress at the Laclede. "In 1864 I was employed in the private banking establishment of Jacques Lartre, at Toulon. Barre was absent three days. On the second day he returned, stating that he must have at once 2,000,000 francs, with which to close an important transaction he had on hand. There was not so much cash in the vaults, and he at once opened negotiations with the other banks to supply it. Not a soul suspected him. I entered his private office on an errand, his large St. Bernard dog trotting at my heels. When he saw me, instead of springing forward to greet him as was his wont, he uttered a vicious growl and began barking at him. I turned to him and demanded: 'Why do you bring your dog in here?' 'It is your dog, monsieur,' he replied, in some surprise. 'I went back to my desk feeling a little uneasy. I could scarce believe that the Frenchman could be in the office, something having happened to him, and that he gave me evasive answers when I asked for instructions. I was seized with a desire to have Barre take his hat off. I saw him take it off, and he was not removed, for doubt of his integrity had not taken tangible shape in my mind. I again entered his office with a paper for his signature, and as I placed it on his desk I noticed, by seeing accidently, to knock his hat off. It was not Barre. The resemblance was so marked when he wore his hat, entirely disappeared when it was removed. He replaced it hurriedly and I retired. I communicated my discovery to the cashier, and an officer was summoned, but when he entered the office the impostor was gone. He had escaped through a side door.'—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Light-house.
Mr. and Mrs. Lartre, of Toulon, France, and the Government Light-house at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain. She grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere handful of bones. Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at C. G. Lannon's Drugstore, 604 King street.
